STAT

Dear Marriott:

[redacted] who visited you recently, has returned to Washington and has reported in glowing terms on the hospitality extended to him and on the cooperation of our two Services in the field.

He has said that in his view our reciprocal arrangement, loosely knit though it is, should serve as an example to all combined British-American enterprises. It was indeed gratifying to have a high-ranking officer of this Agency report so favorably, and I wish to thank you for your part in making his visit pleasant and in creating such a favorable impression on him.

STAT
[redacted] asked me to extend his warmest personal regards.

Sincerely,

STAT
